

Krupa Patel

Staff Pharmacist - Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

North Wales, PA - Email me on Indeed: indeed.com/r/Krupa-Patel/8075aeb191ecb8e

WORK EXPERIENCE

Staff Pharmacist

Children's Hospital of Philadelphia - Philadelphia, PA - July 2006 to Present

Philadelphia, PA

Responsibilities include reviewing and processing orders to ensure that the medication is appropriate in terms of dose, dosage form, route of administration, frequency, duration of therapy, and disease state. Supervising pharmacy technicians and interns to ensure pharmacy products are prepared and distributed accurately. Consulting with physicians, nurses, and other healthcare professionals concerning drug therapies and implications in patient care. Processing total parenteral nutrition (TPN) orders, including compounding. Reviewing and investigating adverse drug reactions, respond to drug information requests, and conducting medication reconciliations. Process and prepare all chemotherapy orders according to CHOP Chemotherapy Standards for inpatient and outpatient units, including investigational compounds according to study protocol. Knowledgeable with practice and use of RIVA (Robotic IV Automation).

Per Diem Staff Pharmacist

Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital - New Brunswick, NJ - July 2005 to May 2008

Responsibilities included ensuring proper dispensing of IV and oral medications. Monitoring pharmacokinetic levels of appropriate drugs. Participating in code situations. Collaborate with other health care professionals to plan, monitor, review and evaluate patient drug therapy effectiveness. Monitoring patients for side effects and drug interactions.

Staff Pharmacist

CVS Pharmacy - East Brunswick, NJ - July 2005 to May 2007

Responsibilities included dispensing prescription medicines the public in a retail setting. Communicate with physicians/nurses on prescriptions. Assure services are in compliance with professional standards, state and federal regulatory requirements. Counseling patients regarding medication usage and side effects.

Consultant Pharmacist

Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital - August 2005 to October 2005

Central NJ

Responsibilities included review of medication regimen of all residents in assigned long-term care facilities at least once every 30 days. Monitoring medication use for proper diagnosis, dosing, drug interactions, and adverse events. Communicating results of therapeutic drug monitoring activities to appropriate personnel and monitoring response to recommendations.

Pharmacy Technician

CVS Pharmacy - New Brunswick, NJ - May 2001 to June 2005

Pharmacy Technician

CVS Pharmacy - Franklin Park, NJ - July 1998 to June 2005

EDUCATION

Doctor of Pharmacy

Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy

1999 to 2005

The State University of New Jersey - Piscataway, NJ