

Judith Klevan

Pharmacist - Albert Einstein Medical Center

Langhorne, PA - Email me on Indeed: indeed.com/r/Judith-Klevan/ad38277da9384709

WORK EXPERIENCE

Pharmacist

Albert Einstein Medical Center - December 2012 to Present

Responsibilities include: Monitoring medications profiled and dispensed for appropriateness, interactions, contraindications and other clinical issues. Communicating with physicians, nurses and other clinical staff in order to improve and provide care. Performing and documentation of clinical interventions of problematic orders. Extemporaneous IV admixture, Supervision of technicians as well as other pharmacy duties.

Pharmacist

Jeanes Hospital - February 2007 to April 2014

Responsibilities include: Monitoring dosages of medications dispensed to adult/geriatric patient populations. Collaborating with clinical hospital staff in order to improve patient safety and outcomes. Performing renal dosing adjustments, as well as dosing protocols for various antibiotics, warfarin, heparin and darbepoetin. Performing medication reconciliations, providing warfarin counseling. Making total parenteral nutrition consultations and recommendations for therapy to improve patient care and outcomes. Monitoring patients profiles for contraindications and interactions and documentation of clinical interventions. Performing pyxis functions as well as overseeing and teaching pharmacy technicians and pharmacy technician students, training new pharmacists and various other pharmacy duties.

Pharmacist

Jeanes Hospital - December 2007 to July 2012

Responsibilities include: Monitoring medications profiled and dispensed. Communicating with physicians, nurses and other clinical staff in order to improve and provide care. Performing reviews of contrast dye orders prior to dispensing in order to comply with Joint Commission safety initiatives. Reviewing hyperalimentation orders for adults and neonates. Maintaining and monitoring patient medication profiles.

Pharmacist

St. Christopher's Hospital for Children - July 2003 to February 2009

Responsibilities include: Monitoring dosages of medications dispensed to neonatal, pediatric and adolescent patients. Communications with and providing information to clinical hospital staff in order to improve patient care. Maintaining and monitoring patient medication profiles. Performing and documentation of clinical interventions of problematic orders. Extemporaneous IV admixture, including pediatric and neonatal hyperalimentation. Training new pharmacists and technicians; Supervision of technicians as well as other pharmacy duties.

Pharmacist

St. Christopher's Hospital for Children - March 2006 to September 2006

Responsibilities include: inpatient dispensing of medications, maintaining and monitoring computerized patient medication profiles; maintaining records of clinical pharmacy interventions with problematic orders; helping develop and implementing procedures for and performing pharmacy reconciliations of patient home medication upon admission and discharge; communicating with other health care providers, extemporaneous IV admixture, supervision of technicians, rotating Pharm.D. candidates and certified pharmacy technician program students as well as other pharmacy duties.

Pharmacist

St. Mary's Medical Center - March 2000 to June 2003

Responsibilities include: inpatient dispensing of medications in centralized pharmacy, maintaining and monitoring computerized patient medication profiles, performing maintaining records of clinical pharmacy interventions with problematic orders; providing information to and communicating with other health care providers, extemporaneous IV admixture, supervision of technicians as well as other pharmacy duties.

Pharmacist

Allegheny University - May 1998 to October 1998

Responsibilities include: inpatient dispensing of medication in centralized Pharmacy; extemporaneous IV admixture, including adult and neonatal TPN; maintaining and monitoring patient medication profiles; providing information to and communicating with physicians and other healthcare professionals; other duties include supervision of technicians, cart exchange, maintaining pharmacy and PYXIS inventory as well as performance and maintaining records of clinical pharmacy interventions.

Director of Pharmacy

Kirkbride Center & Charter Fairmount Institute - April 1997 to November 1997

Responsibilities include: Overseeing daily operations of dispensing, drug distribution and inventory control; maintaining and monitoring patient medication profiles; overall supervision, hiring and training of pharmacy staff; providing information to and coordinating with nurses and doctors; performance of nursing station inspections, DUE'S and developing QI plans; participation in Pharmacy and Therapeutics committee meetings; developing and providing after hour services; maintaining pharmacy inventory; maintaining narcotic inventory and usage records; performance and maintenance of clinical pharmacy interventions.

Staff Pharmacist

Rite Aid Pharmacy - August 1994 to April 1997

Responsibilities include: Communicating with physicians, nurses, patients and insurance companies; maintaining and monitoring patient medication profiles; dispensing and compounding prescriptions; inventory control, training pharmacy technicians.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science

Temple University - Philadelphia, PA
May 1994

Bachelor of Arts

Temple University - Philadelphia, PA
January 1991

CERTIFICATIONS

Pharmacist, Pa

September 2014 to September 2016

Pharmacist, Nj

April 2015 to April 2017